

Freedom's Feast THANKSGIVING

resources to get the most out of your THANKSGIVING celebration.

Additional Thanksgiving Resources

Pilgrim Hall, our nations oldest continuously operating public museum located in Plymouth, Massachusetts, teaches about some of the earliest settlers from Europe. <http://www.pilgrimhall.org>

Check out a comprehensive guide to Native American histories and Native American facts. http://www.kidinfo.com/American_History/Native_Americans.html

Visit the National Museum of the American Indian at the Smithsonian Institute. Home to over 800,000 artifacts and 300,000 images, the museum is committed to telling the story of the Native cultures of the western hemisphere. This includes our country's shameful and difficult history of our treatment of the Native American peoples, here for thousands of years before the arrival of European settlers. <http://www.nmai.si.edu>

Designed for teachers, parents and kids this reliable vendor of educational content offers quality info for anyone who wants to learn more about the first Thanksgiving and early life in America. Start your journey there and see where your explorations will take you! http://www.scholastic.com/scholastic_thanksgiving/

Share your family's story with the world this year through StoryCorps' 'the Great American Listen,' and help to make history. <https://storycorps.me/about/the-great-thanksgiving-listen/>